EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Authorization for this examiner's amendment was given in a telephone interview with Sheldon Landsman on 07/08/2011.

The application has been amended as follows:

Cancel claims 7 and 22-24.

Examiner's Note

In the amendment of 05/23/2011, the claims were not listed in ascending order. Rather, the claims 5 and 7 were listed consecutively followed by cancellation of claims 6-15. Though this amendment is non-compliant because the claims are not listed in proper order, this issue is obviated by the examiner's amendment above.

Allowable Subject Matter

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: the closest prior art, Kinsho et al (US 2003/0125479 A1), which discloses the claimed polymer particles B and E, does not disclose a powdered resin composition wherein the claimed polymer particles B and E could have been polymerized and then dry-blended at room temperature.

The product-by-product limitations of the independent claim imply a structure wherein the polymer particles B and E are unattached to one another in a dry mixture. Kinsho, discussed in the previous rejection, discloses the claimed particles arranged in a different way. In Kinsho, one powder is polymerized in the presence of another, resulting in the intimate attachment of one particle to another. Indeed, this is the salient feature of Kinsho. Kinsho does disclose cleaving the two particles apart in aqueous solution. Kinsho also discloses the attached particles in dried (powder) form. However, there is not disclosure of the particles reading on the claims, i.e. in dry powder form wherein the particles are merely mixed together at room temperature.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to MIKE M. DOLLINGER whose telephone number is (571)270-5464. The examiner can normally be reached on M-F 9-5:30.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, Randy Gulakowski can be reached on 571-272-1302. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
